Amanda Steidtmann leads the Crossman & Company leasing team in the Atlanta office. She is responsible for leasing all of the Publix-owned shopping centers in her region, as well as working with various other clients on grocery anchored, lifestyle and power centers.

Prior to joining Crossman & Company, Amanda most recently was a partner with DART Retail Advisors in Atlanta, GA which, she joined shortly after it was founded in April 2009. She and her business partner acquired the Landlord business and leased a portfolio of almost 4 million sq ft. Her predominate clients included but was not limited to, Inland American and Inland Western, consisting of 20 out of the 27 properties that she leased. Amanda also has previous experience as a Regional Leasing Director for Equity One, Inc. and with Victory Real Estate in Columbus, GA after spending two years in property management with New Plan Realty. While managing 10 properties in Tennessee early in her career, she learned the essentials of shopping center operations.

Amanda attended The College of Charleston, and has a BA in International Affairs with a concentration in International Business. She has completed the course in the School of Leasing through the University of Shopping Centers School of Leasing (ICSC) at the Wharton School of Business. She is currently working on her Broker's license and a candidate to receive designation as a Certified Commercial Investment Member (CCIM) in which she has completed all four courses. She is also an active member and participant of ICSC and the brokerage community.
